Discussion/Action: The meeting opened at 3:48 PM, 10 people other than the board attended the Town Hall meeting.

Evelyn gave an update on her RCTOD committee.
Eric and Nancy updated the group on the Dearborn Street mural idea.
Les gave an update on his events committee.

Betty Nugent, from the audience, asked about memberships. She then suggested that other membership types, with lower dues requirements be established. She suggested that a “supporting member” membership might attract more people to join OEVA.

John talked about a skateboard park for the youth of the community. It was noted that there is an existing Charlotte County Skate Park nearby on San-Casa.

Tony Delridge suggested that OEVA should consider purchasing a community ad from the Boca Beacon. Todd noted that the CRA already does, and has for years, to support the merchants in the community.

John Munn updated the Board on his Pop-Up Music Area, PUMA, idea and how it was progressing.

Evelyn Dales suggested we consider creating an Art Walk Guide as a community handout / promotional tool.

Other topics discussed were community parking needs, the street and plaza projects ahead and the on-going topic of OEVA's arts restructuring.

Motion to Adjourn: Todd Tracy, seconded by Evelyn Dales, motion passed unanimously. 4:38 PM.
